Brief History of Marijuana in Colorado

- In November of 2000, voters of the state of Colorado passed Amendment 20 to the state's constitution, codified in article XVIII, section 14. This article effectively legalized limited amounts of medical marijuana for patients and their primary caregivers
- In 2009, the Colorado Board of Health narrowly rejected the previous five patient limit for caregivers, allowing for the sale of marijuana in physical locations. In effect, this approved and created the dispensary model as we know it
- In 2010, the Colorado Legislature enacted the Colorado Medical Marijuana Code – the most comprehensive system of medical marijuana distribution and regulation in the world – through the passage of SB 10-109 and HB 10-1284 (C.R.S. 12-43-3.101)
 - Created a robust system and regulatory framework to license commercial businesses for the distribution and production of medical marijuana and imposed new restrictions on patients, caregivers, and doctors
- On November 6th, 2012, Colorado became the first state in the world to vote in favor of ending marijuana prohibition and legalizing public retail sales with about 55% of the Colorado electorate voting in favor of Amendment 64

Brief History of Marijuana in Brighton

Items for Further Consideration

- If allowed, various municipal code amendments related to operation, design, security and storage will be necessary
 - Repeal ordinances that prohibit the sale of medical or retail marijuana
 - Tabor election and sales tax rate
- Number and locations of allowed and their proximity to schools, daycares, churches, etc.
- Determine what types of licenses and land uses to allow for (retail sales, cultivation, manufacturing, testing, delivery, on-site consumption. etc.)
- Ordinance to set fees for reviewing a license (similar to fees set for reviewing liquor licenses) and related processes
- Potential needs for additional staff
