Nomination for the Inclusion of Elaine (Silver) Padilla on the Memorial Parkway:

Elaine Padilla exemplified the true spirit of volunteerism in Brighton. She graduated from Brighton High School in 1964 and attend CU-Boulder, married Gil Padilla, and they raised their three children, Jo, Peter and Jonna here.

Her involvement with youth included the Police Athletic League Wrestling Program, Girl Scouts, several parent advisory committees with the school district including the first bilingual committee, and sewing costumes for Brighton High School drama.

Community involvement included work with the House of Neighborly Services, FISH (a volunteer counseling and referral service), and Meals on Wheels. She served on the Platte Valley Medical Center Board of Directors including president of the Board.

Elaine was honored with several awards: 9Who Care, the Liberty Bell Award from the Adams County Bar Association and was named Brighton's Outstanding Citizen of the Year in 2004.

Elaine passed away on April 1, 2014.

I highly recommend Elaine (Silver) Padilla for recognition on the Memorial Parkway.
