

Proclamation

Won't You Be My Neighbor Month, a month dedicated to sparking kindness through neighborly actions throughout the community of Brighton.

Whereas, DECA prepares emerging leaders in marketing, management and entrepreneurship in high schools and colleges around the globe; and

Whereas, Brighton DECA has continually been recognized as a leading chapter in the state of Colorado over the past fifty years; and

Whereas, the City of Brighton has been dedicated to supporting these young marketers and celebrating their success over these fifty years; and

Whereas, Brighton DECA members have annually utilized their learned marketing skills to spread awareness for issues and promote ideas such as the importance of voting, safe driving, anti-substance abuse, and the value of shopping small and supporting your local economy as a part of International DECA's Community Awareness Projects; and

Whereas, when assessing key needs for a community awareness promotional campaign to address for the 2019-2020 year, the members of Brighton DECA identify the need to spread awareness of the power of kindness and neighborly actions within our community to empower one another to collaborate for the greater good for our future.

Therefore Brighton DECA members have decided to use their marketing skills to promote the value of kindness and power of neighborly activities to the citizens of the community, Brighton DECA members encourage citizens to pledge to be a good neighbor, participate in random acts of kindness, and complete neighborly activities such as, helping one another, being a positive role model in the community, collecting donations for local organizations, attending community events, and spreading positivity. Through acts of kindness and neighborly actions, we are able to have support for one another, despite our differences, and leave a lasting positive impact for generations to come. Please won't you be my neighbor?
