

Naming of Public Facilities

CITY COUNCIL MEETING – Dec. 5, 2023

City Staff Representatives:

Marv Falconburg, Deputy City Manager
Travis Haines, Parks & Recreation Director
Yasmina Shaush, Assistant City Attorney

Overview

Presenting for the Consideration of City Council, an update to the policy for naming public amenities and parks and recreation facilities & consideration of naming the new Municipal Service Center in honor of former Public Works Director, Michael Woodruff.

- The policy for naming public amenities has not been updated since 2005
- The proposed policy has been cleaned up and streamlined
- Council will have opportunities for public input and discretion in naming facilities

Key Provisions

The recommended Policy for Naming of Public Amenities and Park & Recreation Facilities is attached to the council packet. Key provisions of the updated policy include:

- A procedure for naming public amenities, other than parks and recreation facilities, by the City Council
- A procedure for recommending names for public amenities, other than parks and recreation facilities, by a special residents committee
- Criteria for naming public amenities by a resident committee
- A process of City Council to approve
- A procedure for naming parks and recreation facilities and memorial parkway recognitions, with Council approval

Options for City Council

Brighton City Council has the following options in this matter:

- ❑ Approve a resolution updating the policy for naming public amenities and parks and recreation facilities
- ❑ Approve a resolution naming the new Municipal Service Center in honor of former Public Works Director, Michael Woodruff
- ❑ Not approve the resolutions