RE: Recommendation to appoint Joe Arp to the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board

Mayor Mills and Members of City Council,

I am writing this letter on behalf of the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board.

Members of our board reviewed Joe Arp's application materials and conducted an interview on April 2nd, 2025, for At-large Bike Brighton member position. After completion of the interview, members voted in favor of recommending that the City Council appoint him to this position. The following qualifications are cited from the Board and Commission Application and interview responses:

- Joe has a deep connection to the community, having lived in Brighton for 50 years. His long-standing involvement in the biking community reflects his dedication to public service and his desire to make a positive impact. His passion for supporting and improving the community was evident in his responses.
- Joe values teamwork and collaboration. He emphasized the importance of working together and is open to diverse perspectives. His approach, which blends experience with inclusivity, will be an asset in board discussions.
- During the interview process, Joe Arp showcased excellent communication skills. He was clear, articulate, and thoughtful in expressing his ideas qualities that are essential for successful collaboration on the board. His thoughtful engagement and ability to convey his perspective will foster productive and meaningful discussions.

Thank you for your consideration.

Best regards,

Cory Moul (Apr 3, 2025 14:11 MDT)
