

THURSTON WILLIAM "BILL" WALLACE

June 8, 2020

Brighton Memorial Parkway

Nomination: Thurston William "Bill" Wallace (8/23/47-5/2/20)

Submitted by: Clint Blackhurst

If you need a word of encouragement, a good laugh, unfettered time for someone to listen and counsel, someone who cherished Brighton as his home, you need look no further than Bill Wallace.

Most people surely know and remember Bill as an attorney, practicing law in Brighton for 42 years. His clients ran the gamut from cities, farmers, homeowners, teen-agers, elderly, business people, both prosecuting and defending, but always with the utmost professionalism and compassion. He volunteered his time doing pro bono work in the Adams County courts, representing the indigent and underserved.

Bill and his wife, Margaret (who taught in the Brighton School District) raised their three children here. Bill was active in Toastmasters, AA, the Colorado and Adams County Bar Associations, and First Presbyterian Church where he sang in the choir and served as an Elder.

Bill leaves a long legacy of service to the citizens of Brighton and is worthy of recognition on the Brighton Memorial Parkway.
