

Proclamation

National Animal Control Officer Appreciation Week

WHEREAS, The National Animal Care and Control Association, or NACA is committed to setting the standard of professionalism in animal welfare and public safety through training, networking, and advocacy; and

WHEREAS, NACA has established the second week of April as National Animal Control Officer Appreciation Week; and

WHEREAS, Federal, state, and local government officials throughout the country take the time each year to recognize, thank, and commend all animal care and control professionals for the dedicated services they provide to local communities; and

WHEREAS, The Brighton Police Department Community Services Division and its 7 Community Service Officers provide an essential community function by enforcing animal control laws and protecting and providing devoted service to animals, residents, and public safety departments; and

WHEREAS, Community Service Officers spend their days going out into the public to protect the welfare of helpless animals and pets that are rescued from injury, disease, abuse, and starvation; and

WHEREAS, The City of Brighton commends its animal care and control professionals for their devotion and dedication to providing the highest and most efficient level of customer service.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that I, Gregory Mills, Mayor of the City of Brighton, on behalf of the City Council, do hereby proclaim April 10-16, 2022 as Animal Control Officer Appreciation Week in Brighton, Colorado and encourage all citizens to join us in expressing their sincere appreciation for the service and dedication of our Community Service Officers.

DATED this 5th day of April 2022

ATTEST:

Natalie Hoel, City Clerk

CITY OF BRIGHTON

Gregory Mills, Mayor
Adam Cushing, Mayor Pro Tem
Clint Blackhurst
Matt Johnston
Peter Padilla
Jan Pawlowski
Mary Ellen Pollack
Ann Taddeo
Tim Watts