RE: Recommendation to appoint Quentin Kosch to the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board

Mayor Mills and Members of City Council,

I am writing this letter on behalf of the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board.

Members of our board reviewed Quentin Kosch's application materials and conducted an interview on February 6, 2025, for an alternate member position. After completion of the interview, members voted in favor of recommending that City Council to appoint him as an alternate. The following qualifications are cited from the Board and Commission Application and interview responses:

- He had clear communication skills throughout the interview process, Quentin exhibited excellent communication skills. He was articulate, thoughtful, and capable of clearly expressing his ideas, which is vital for collaborative work on the board.
- He is commitment to community. Quintin expressed a genuine passion for contributing to the community. His desire to make a positive impact and his dedication to public service were evident in his responses.
- He is team-oriented it was clear that Quintin values teamwork and collaboration. He emphasized the importance of working collectively with others and showed openness to diverse perspectives, which will be valuable in board discussions.

Thank you for your consideration.

Best regards,

Cory Moul (Feb 9, 2025 11:50 MST)
