

Proclamation

NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER

May 3, 2018

WHEREAS, the history of our Nation is indelibly marked with the role that prayer has played in the lives of individual Americans and indeed the United States as a whole; and

WHEREAS, many of our greatest leaders have always turned to prayer in times of crisis; and

WHEREAS, we acknowledge that prayer is a deeply personal and individual experience; the way in which it finds expression depends on our individual dispositions as well as on our religious convictions; and

WHEREAS, the virtues of prayer have a common bond--our hope and aspiration, our sorrows and fears, and deepest remorse and renewed resolve, our thanks and joyful praise; and most importantly our love--all turned towards the God of our choice; and

WHEREAS, America was founded upon the freedom to worship according to the dictates of our own conscience.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kenneth J. Kreutzer, Mayor of the City of Brighton, on behalf of the City Council, do hereby proclaim Thursday, May 3, 2018 as
