

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BRIGHTON, COLORADO APPROVING AND ADOPTING THE CITY OF BRIGHTON STRATEGIC PLAN FOR 2018 – 2019.

Resolution No.: 2018-57

WHEREAS, in order to plan effectively for the future of the City of Brighton, Colorado, the Brighton City Council attended a City Council Retreat on March 23 - March 24, 2018, which was facilitated by Dr. John Nalbandian of the University of Kansas School of Public Affairs and Julia Novak of the Novak Consulting Group; and

WHEREAS, The City of Brighton developed and utilizes a strategic plan for the purpose of identifying City Council priorities and goals, and to ensure a unified direction as a guidance to the City Manager and City Staff for priority projects and budget development; and

WHEREAS, the City Council is currently developing a Business Plan that will accompany and support the Strategic Plan and will align the Council's policy priorities with both specific and broad initiatives that will be developed and implemented in 2018 and beyond; and

WHEREAS, the Council Retreat and Business Plan work sessions to date resulted in a refined City of Brighton Strategic Plan for 2018 – 2019, the text of which is attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference; and

WHEREAS, the City of Brighton Strategic Plan for 2018 - 2019 and supplemental Business Plan will serve as a guide for the development of the Fiscal Year 2019 Budget, with a commitment to keeping the Strategic Plan active and updated in order to meet the needs and demands of a growing city.
