National Crime Victim Rights Week
April 6th – 12th 2025

This year our nation will be recognizing National Crime Victim Rights Week (NCRVW)

April 6th- 12th 2025

Since 1981, National Crime Victims' Rights Week has challenged the nation to confront and remove barriers to full justice for all victims of crime. Each year, communities across the country revisit the history of the victims' rights movement, celebrate the progress made, and recommit themselves to further advancements in the crime victims' field.

This year's theme – Connecting Kinship Healing – is a call-to-action to recognize that shared humanity should be at the center of supporting all survivors and victims of crime. KINSHIP is a state of being with survivors that drives vital connections and increases access to services, rights, and healing. KINSHIP is where victim advocacy begins.

This year's colors are- Midnight, Mauve, and Melon
