

Proclamation

National Day of Inclusion

WHEREAS, exclusion fuels the fear of difference, inclusion fuels acceptance; and

WHEREAS, engaging students and community members with and without Intellectual Disabilities through sports, leadership, and whole school or community efforts is a quick path to friendship and understanding; and

WHEREAS, when all people are included in all aspects of a community, we see the person rather than their disability; and

WHEREAS, an inclusive mindset can lead to new ideas, change in policies, and structures; and

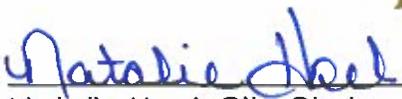

WHEREAS, believing in everyone everywhere only makes Brighton and our schools a better place to live.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that I, Gregory Mills, Mayor of the City of Brighton, on behalf of the City Council, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, March 4th as the National Day of Inclusion and challenge each resident of the City of Brighton to make a difference by joining us in this proclamation.

DATED this 3rd day of March 2026.
